Dear Sirs

I am willing and available to serve as the Adjudicator in relation to the dispute which has arisen on the above-mentioned Contract.

In accordance with the Construction Adjudication Association of South Africa's Adjudication Rules relating to disclosure statements by selected or nominated persons to the adjudication, I hereby state that:

- I shall act with complete impartiality and know of nothing at this time, which could affect my impartiality.
- I am not currently employed by any of the Parties to the dispute, nor have I been in the last 3 years..
- I do not have any financial connection with any of the Parties.

- I do not have or have not had any relationship with any authoritative member of the Parties which could affect my impartiality.
- I undertake to immediately disclose to the Parties any changes in the above position which could, or be perceived to, affect my impartiality.

(Should there be any deviation from the foregoing statements, please provide details).
