

Mark A Hamilton

Address: Suite 102, 1st Floor, Block A, Cresta Junction, Beyers Naude Drive, Cresta, Johannesburg

Cell: +27 83 292 2273

Email: markh@binningtons.co.za

Academic Qualifications:

- BSc Quantity Surveying Degree at the University of the Witwatersrand – 1982
- Fellowship Admission Course - Association of Arbitrators (Southern Africa) NPC
- Registered Quantity Surveyor - South African Council for the Quantity Surveying Profession

Membership in Professional Institutions:

- Association of South African Quantity Surveyors)
- Fellow Association of Arbitrators (Southern Africa) NPC
- Member of the Construction Adjudication Association of South Africa

Experience and fields of work:

- Was the lead quantity surveyor on the multi-million-rand Johannesburg athletics stadium as well as the FNB Randburg computer centre.
- Has and continues to provided quantum legal services for the construction of numerous high end as well as owner/build homes in various locations across South Africa.
- Provided ad hoc contractual support to the employer on the multi-million Rand Kusile and Madupi Power Station Projects;
- Provided ad hoc contractual advice to the EPC contractor on the Sasol FT Wax Expansion Project.
- Successfully represented the contractor for the World Cup Free State Stadium in the adjudication of several delay and disruption claims/disputes totalling in excess of R60mil. Thereafter, assisted SC in defending the disputed adjudicator's decision in arbitration.

- Assisted the employer, in recovering monies that had been inappropriately awarded to the contractor by the engineer on the Berg River Dam Project.
- Provided on-going contractual support to the employer and engineer on the Magugu Dam project.
- Provided on-going contractual support to the employer and EPCM contractor on the P2.5bn Jwaneng Diamond Mine Cut-8 Expansion Project.
- Was the senior contracts administrator on Cell C's multi-billion-rand roll-out of its dual-band GSM communications network – the network comprised of 4700 base stations across Southern Africa.
- Provided the European Bank with contractual expertise on the rehabilitation of a national road in Ethiopia between Gonda and Addis Ababa (662km).
- Has acted in his capacity as an expert witness on quantum issues in numerous adjudications and arbitrations.
- Prepared and successfully presented a P100mil counter claim in an arbitration, on behalf of the employer, on an underground mining dispute in northern Botswana.
- Defended and had the quantification of the Contractor's claim significantly reduced/set-aside on an R800 mil dispute on the Gamma-Kappa transmission line in the Northern Cape.
- Has drafted numerous bespoke contracts as well as employer specific templates to be used with the FIDIC suite of contracts for various clients including Rand Water, Debswana, Tati Nickel, Schindler Lifts, BCL Mine.
- Mark currently provides ad hoc contractual support to a wide range of clients in Southern Africa and has been appointed and subsequently delivered numerous awards and determinations on a multitude of engineering and construction disputes that have been referred to him in his capacity as either adjudicator or arbitrator.